Background:

This is the first year that 'The Charles W. Quann Pastor's Excellence Award' will be made available. It was established by Reverend Quann to reward a graduating high school student who has achieved scholastically while demonstrating a love for God, is spiritually devoted and has been a service to the community.

Whether or not you plan on attending college, high school is a good time to begin to take inventory of your aspirations, experiences, strengths, and weaknesses and start to figure out what sorts of things you might like doing when you're on your own.

Biography of the Reverend Charles W. Quann

The Reverend Charles W. Quann has served as the Pastor of the Bethlehem Baptist Church in Spring House, PA since April 1986. Since his calling to The Bethlehem Baptist Church, a Christ –Centered, Multi-Cultural Church, Pastor Quann has directed the development of numerous ministries

Reverend Quann was born and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Eastern University, with additional studies at Eastern (Palmer) Theological Seminary in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania.

Pastor Quann was appointed to the Montgomery County Advisory Council to the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission January, 2012 and in 2014 elected as Chairperson of the Council; elected to the Board of Trustees of Abington Memorial Hospital in 2010; elected as Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Abington Memorial Hospital in 2017; member of the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, USA; Board member of the Wissahickon Faith Community; Past President of the American Red Cross, Penn Jersey Region and current board member; Vice President, Board of the Montgomery County Housing Authority; Vice President and Board Member of the Inter-Faith Housing Alliance; Member of the Blue Bell Rotary; Board of Directors of the YMCA of Ambler; Board member Inter-Faith Center of Greater Philadelphia; Board Member of the E. Washington Rhoads Board of the Philadelphia Tribune. Chairman of ChildPromise, Inc. and Board Member of ChildFirst Services; former Board member and Moderator of the Philadelphia Baptist Association; Pearl Buck Foundation and Tabor Children Services.

Pastor Quann is an anointed and humble servant of God who demonstrates by example his spiritual growth in his personal walk with God and his fervent desire to win souls for Christ. Pastor Quann preaches extensively across the country and on the continent of Africa in Kenya. He writes a monthly article for The Philadelphia Tribune, the oldest African American Newspaper in the nation. Pastor Quann hosts a daily early Morning Prayer service, "Church Without Walls" with over 100 persons from around the country. He also authors a daily devotional which is published quarterly and distributed to many persons and organizations.

Pastor Quann is the author of the book "It's Not Where You Start, But Where You Finish That Counts", published in 2017.
