Message from the Youth Pastor

Last Sunday was a day I will never forget. With so much devastating news in our world, I had not given much thought to celebrating a significant milestone in my life. For years, I have desired to earn the Master of Divinity degree. This desire has coincided with my decision to finally embrace the call that God placed on my life, years ago. The journey of me starting this degree at Reformed Episcopal Seminary in Blue Bell (where I became acquainted with Bethlehem), and then continuing and finishing at Princeton Seminary, has been a rich experience.

Thank you for celebrating the work of God in my life. You share in this accomplishment, as it would not have been possible without the support of Pastor Quann, our leadership and all of you. Thank you for making a space for me to not just study, but to serve while studying. I pray that our youth who see higher education (whether scholastic or technical) as a part of their journey, are encouraged to pursue, knowing they have all our support. There are so many individuals at our church who exemplify excellence in their various fields, including many of our associate ministers who have also obtained the Master of Divinity and other advanced degrees. It is important that we “study to show ourselves approved,” as part of our preparation for the tasks ahead.

Let us march ahead, “working together for the Lord.” We are all blessed to stand together as a wonderful, loving church, led by a courageous, humble and giving Pastor. There is no telling what God can do through us, despite the times. I am honored to play a small role in God’s work through Bethlehem and look forward to continued partnership, to the glory of God.

Thank you,

Rev. Sean Tripline
