

Greetings in the name of our Lord!

Words simply cannot express my being immensely blessed by God, through all of you, my Bethlehem family. Earlier this summer, the Joint Ministry made a recommendation to create the role of Assistant Pastor in January 2021, and to place me in this new position. Three months later, the results of the church-wide vote were humbling and an immense encouragement to me and my family. Your gracious welcome and warm embrace have made serving and loving this congregation, easy and organic, well before this occasion. The example of our pastor has established an incredibly high standard of service and pastoral leadership, while instilling in me, the faith that I can be of aid to this sacred work.

Pastor Charles Warren Quann is a leader like none other I know. He has already left an indelible mark on my life and I look to him for guidance, wisdom, leadership, and my own personal pastoral care. I am blessed to not only serve with him, but also, “do life” with him. As a source of my own inspiration, it is an honor to serve him as he serves you. God has placed a great burden on him for the people of God. I simply pray that God makes me increasingly able to be a blessing to all the people of this church. Please pray for me in this manner. My sole desire is to be used by the Lord to do the Lord’s work, as needed by our pastor and church.

My burden for the youth of our church is unchanged. We are blessed with an incredible group of future leaders, who offer inspiration to all of us, continually. As we look to move deeper in our care of our youth, I have been led by the Lord to establish a Youth Ministry Advisory Council. This council, co-chaired by Minister Nicole Proctor, will help advise this vibrant part of our ministry.

The Lord is doing great work through this church. I pray you will continually invest in the move of the Spirit, among us. Thank you for your love, prayers, and continued confidence, as we believe God to do a new thing in this season.

Faithfully yours,
Rev. Sean Tripline
Youth Pastor
